Midway Chatter

The office heads and county commissioners have agreed to close the Pickaway County Courthouse Wednesday afternoon to give county employees an opportunity to attend the fair.

Junior Fair King Bob Collins looked like anything but royalty early this morning in the swine barn at the Fairgrounds. He was busily washing his market hogs in preparation for today's junior fair swine show.

All of the activity today centered in the swine barn. Tomorrow the scene will switch to the cattle barns with the 4H beef classes parading to the show ring.

Tractor pulling over the years has become a very sophisticated sport. Much time and effort and money goes into building and modifying tractors just for the contests. Volcano Erupts In Costa Rica; Losses Heavy

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — The U.S. Army rushed helicopters and other aid to Costa Rica today after a volcano silent for five centuries erupted and killed at least 12 persons, injured hundreds and threatened a number of villages.

The government ordered the evacuation of some 4,000 persons from the villages of Pueblo Nuevo and Tabacon after nearby Mt. Arenal began erupting Monday.

A state of emergency was declared by the legislative assembly. It authorized emergency expenditures to help those affected.

Many of those driven from their homes were badly burned. Heavy rains hampered rescue operations. Refugees were taken to churches, schools and private homes outside the danger zone.

Huge quantities of lava and rock spewed from the volcano's cone, and eight inches of volcanic ash covered the central part of the rich ranching region 45 miles northwest of San Jose.

Grazing land, rice and cotton crops were ruined. The volcano, which is 5,249 feet high, continued to throw out burning stones and lava through the night. The ashes, rock and lava dammed rivers and brooks in the area, and many of these overflowed, adding to the damage.

Although experts said Mt. Arenal had been quiet for approximately 500 years, Mt. Irazu, 30 miles east of San Jose, erupted for several months in 1963, ruined millions of dollars worth of coffee and other crops and killed hundreds of cattle.

Police Need New Tactics, Stokes Says

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mayor Carl B. Stokes says the police need guerrilla type training to deal with the kind of sniper battle waged on Cleveland's East Side last week.

Police Chief Michael Blackwell said the danger isn't over yet and machine guns may still be hidden in the area.

"We are still trying to find those guns," Blackwell said Monday in a news conference, adding they were not "sub machine guns, but the tripod military type."

Blackwell agreed with Mayor's move last Wednesday to withdraw white policemen and National Guardsmen from a six-square mile area in the Glenview section.

Blackwell said machine guns were "waiting for those men. We would have been sending men into a death trap."

Stokes said at a news conference that "my concern that night was that no white policeman—or any other citizen—be killed and that no confrontation take place that might lead to this."

The request for guerrilla training was made by the Fraternal Order of Police, who presented Stokes with a list of the racial disorders.

Rocky, Nixon Disagree on Polls

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says the Richard M. Nixon people who claim they have the Republican presidential nomination wrapped up with more than 700 delegate votes are "whistling in the dark."

"It's just factually not true," Rockefeller said in Denver Monday. "We see Nixon with 500 to 550 votes."

The GOP nomination a week from Wednesday at the national convention in Miami Beach will require 667 votes and Rockefeller has been basing his own prospects on the contention Nixon's strength is shaky and dwindling.

The Nixon camp's prediction of sure victory came in connection with Gallup Poll that showed Nixon leading both the Democratic contenders—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy—and Rockefeller barely leading McCarthy.

The poll showed Nixon leading Humphrey 40 per cent to 38 and McCarthy 41 per cent to 36. It showed Rockefeller tied with Humphrey at 36 per cent each and leading McCarthy 36 per cent to 35.

Rockefeller released his own poll showing only he leads Humphrey in Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan and Pennsylvania while both the GOP contenders lead Humphrey in New York, Ohio, California and New Jersey.

Humphrey, meanwhile, proposed dedication of a brand new city July 4, 1976—the nation's 200th anniversary—as a living monument to America's determination to solve its urban ills. "It's newness would bring with it a fresh promise," Humphrey said in prepared remarks in San Francisco. "People who inhabit a new city bring to it an automatic equality . . . and they have no slums."

Stage Is Set For Steel Vote

Local Presidents Study Decision

PITTSBURGH (AP) — With the threat of a nationwide steel strike fading before a reported 78-cent offer, the stage is set today for the first big test of new power given the United Steelworkers Union rank and file.

It was reported the wage and benefits package, for three years, still is being negotiated and may be worth another 10 cents an hour before it is wrapped up.

"They have an agreement," said Anthony Tomko, president of a 5,000-man local at McKeesport, Pa. "The problem now seems to be whether the union leaders can sell it to the members."

For the first time, the 600 local presidents have the power to ratify or reject a contract, or call a strike when the current agreement runs out at midnight Wednesday. They are organized into a group called the basic steel industry conference, meeting this afternoon.

Officially, the union wasn't even admitting Monday that a new offer from the industry was on the table, much less that it was acceptable to top negotiators.

But union sources passed the word that the industry had offered a 20-cent hourly wage increase immediately, with raises of 12 and 13 cents to follow in the second and third year of the contract—a total of 45 cents.

All workers not covered by incentive pay—the biggest issue in some plants—would get a 5 per cent bonus. Pensions would be raised from $5 to 6.50 a (Continued on Page 2)

George Wallace Presidency A Catastrophe?

KENT, Ohio (AP)—The United States would become a police state if George Wallace were elected president, James Farmer said Monday night.

Farmer, former national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, said election of Wallace would be "a catastrophe."

Speaking to a group of about 300 at Kent State University, Farmer said the former Alabama governor would bring about a "massive repression of Negroes. He could put black militants into concentration camps. We'd become a police state."

Farmer's talk was sponsored by the university's Summer Artists-Lecture Series.

Birth Control Ban Brings Catholic Apathy, Dissent

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Some Roman Catholics have reacted with dissent or indifference to Pope Paul VI's encyclical against birth control while others hailed the papal statement as refreshing and a reaffirmation of Christian truth.

The Pope, in a long-awaited pronouncement Monday, upheld the prohibition on all artificial means of contraception and appealed to leaders of civil governments everywhere to outlaw contraception, sterilization and abortion as means of limiting population.

Most liberal Catholics who spoke out after the announcement took the view that those among the world's half billion Catholics who already use modern birth control methods would continue to do so based on the belief that sexual morality is a matter of conscience.

Commonweal, a liberal weekly journal edited by Catholics, said in an editorial for publication this week: "For millions of lay people, the birth control question has been confronted, prayed over and settled—and not in the direction of the Pope's encyclical."

On another note, Triumph magazine, which voices a Conservative viewpoint, declared the papal statement was "a courageous reaffirmation of Christian truth" that "invites the world to return to moral sanity."

James Francis Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles, a conservative, found the Pope's statement "refreshing" and "in conformity with time-established principles of right reason and scientific research."

"Rome has spoken," said Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston, "and for the time being the case is closed."

In Washington a group claiming to speak for 142 of the 1,223 clergymen in the archdiocese went on record against the anticipated ban last Saturday, saying in a letter to Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle:

"Many of your priests cannot in conscience follow this directive because it gives no room for either probable opinion regarding the practice of contraception or the right of conscience so clearly enunciated in the documents of Vatican II."

Mary Louise Birmingham, a Catholic housewife and editor of Hackensack, N.J., said: "The papacy is an outmoded institution, something like the English monarchy. Catholics are paying less and less attention to it."

"I don't care what the Pope says," said Maryann Napoli, a young Manhattan housewife and mother of two. "I have the feeling the clergy are talking to themselves on this issue. I've made my decision, and couldn't care less about people at the Vatican who are designing another Galilee case."

Toledo Prowler Shot to Death

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A prowler was shot to death early today as he attempted to open a bedroom window of a home on Toledo's near south-east side.

Sterling Coogeler told police he was awakened by his two teen-age daughters who had heard someone removing a screen from their bedroom window.

The father exchanged bedrooms with the girls, got a gun and fired twice through the window, police said.

Blackouts, UFOs Linked By Physicist

WASHINGTON (AP)—A University of Arizona physicist indicated Monday there might be some relationship between unidentified flying objects and power failures, particularly the 1965 blackout of the northeast section of the United States.

Dr. James E. McDonald, senior physicist at the Institute of Atmospheric Physics, told a house committee "there are too many instances of sightings of UFOs hovering near power plants."

McDonald said during the New York power failure which began Nov. 9, 1965, the Federal Power Commission had hundreds of reports of UFO sightings.

"There also were reports in upstate New York of a glowing object at the instant the lights went out," he said. The power failure was believed to have begun in upstate New York. "The source of the pulse which triggered the safety mechanism has not been identified," McDonald said, referring to the power system.

McDonald testified before the House Science and Astronautics Committee which held a symposium on unidentified flying objects.

He would not say flatly that the power failures were caused by some form of extraterrestrial life but he said "there is a puzzling and quite disturbing coincidence between the sightings and power blackouts."

McDonald said all too often reports of UFOs contain information about power failures in houses or automobile engines going dead.

In answer to a question by Rep. William F. Ryan, D-N.Y., McDonald said there should be further investigation by the Federal Power Commission or some other government agency into the relationship of UFOs and power failures.

NFO Readies 'Grain Burning'

LONDON, Ohio (AP)—A National Farmers' Organization unit is planning another move — this time a "grain burning," to call attention to their low income, it was reported here today.

Roger L. Key, bargaining supervisor for the Madison County chapter of the organization, urged farmers to participate in the grain burning on the farm of Ed Brecount near Urbana next Saturday. He called it a protest against present low prices for grain with a prospect of much lower prices for the fall harvest.

10 Policemen Are Wounded By Hoodlums

GARY, Ind. (AP) — Police silenced snipers with return gunfire and arrested 64 persons with beefed-up patrols to restore order again early today in Gary.

Mayor Richard G. Hatcher, following a tour of the city, told newsmen "almost no one was on any street after the police moved in and made mass arrests."

No one was reported injured in the third straight night of disorders in this industrial city which has 185,000 residents, 55 per cent of whom are Negro.

Hatcher, 35, the first Negro mayor in a city with a Negro majority, announced establishment of a commission of 14 Negro community leaders. He said the men would work in their respective neighborhoods and act as liaison between the citizens and city officials.

Hatcher said he would continue a curfew on an hour-to-hour basis.

Police Chief James Hilton said he was pleased with the way his men and 180 riot-trained Indiana state policemen bought the disorders under control.

He said the quick reduction of violence was gained because "the youth gangs are beginning to realize that the Gary police will not permit youths to use violence as a method of getting what they want."

In Seattle, Wash., a sniper fired through the roof of a police car, wounding two officers Monday night in an outburst of shooting, firebombing and rock-throwing in Seattle's predominantly Negro central area.

Three other officers were injured and three civilians were wounded by gunfire which police said they did not return.

The violence followed arrest of two members of the militant Black Panther party on suspicion of larceny and a rally at which a Panther leader told 150 Negroes "If you have a gun and don't plan to use it, give it to someone who will."

Filipinos Protest Teen's Slaying By U.S. Marine

MANILA (AP) — About 100 youths screaming "Yankees go home" and "killers" broke through the main gate to the U.S. Embassy compound tonight in protest against the fatal shooting of a Filipino teen-ager by an American Marine guard.

The chanting, placard-carrying youths pushed open the gate and past security guards but lost their steam after rushing some 25 yards into the embassy compound. They stopped, turned around and went back out the gate.

They regrouped there and continued their shouting protest against the killing last Friday of Rogelio Gonzales, 18, by a sentry at the U.S. naval station at Sangley Point south of Manila.

The Manila press has bitterly criticized the killing, saying the situation did not warrant shooting, and insisting that the guard — Lance Cpl. Kenneth Smith, 21, Astoria, N.J. — be turned over to Philippine authorities for trial.

Delta Queen Gets New Lease on Life

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed a bill Monday permitting the Delta Queen, a paddlewheeler threatened by safety regulations, to navigate until November of 1970.

The Delta Queen, the last of the nation's overnight passenger riverboats, does not meet restrictions of a law that becomes effective Nov. 1, 1968, because of her wooden structure.

Devine Disturbed By Trucking Lobby Exposure

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rep. Samuel Devine, R.-Ohio, said Monday that the Des Moines Register story that he and other congressmen received campaign contributions from a trucking committee was "a disturbing report."

According to the Register, Devine received $1,000 from the Truck Operators' Non-Partisan Committee. The story said seven of the nine members of the House Transportation subcommittee received from $500 to $2,000 in campaign funds.

Devine told WTVN Radio of Columbus that he personally does not receive any campaign contributions. "Whenever I'm a candidate for public office any campaign contributions are forwarded through the Devine for Congress Committee," he said.

Devine said he opposed a bill limiting competitive freight hauling by cooperative farm truckers, a bill backed by the truckers group.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed a bill Monday permitting the Delta Queen, a paddlewheeler threatened by safety regulations, to navigate until November of 1970.

Actually, the bill granted the Delta Queen's owners, Greene Line Steamers, Inc., of Cincinnati, a two-year extension in which to build a craft to replace the 40-year-old vessel.

The Delta Queen, the last of the nation's overnight passenger riverboats, does not meet restrictions of a law that becomes effective Nov. 1, 1968, because of her wooden structure.

U.S. Forces Lose 2 Viet Clashes

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. forces suffered setbacks in two ground battles reported today in which 24 Americans were killed and only five enemy bodies were found. In the air a U.S. Navy pilot downed an enemy MIG17 jet fighter in a five-minute dogfight over North Vietnam.

One of the setbacks was dealt U.S. Marines from the 7th Regiment in a day-long battle about 25 miles south of Da Nang, one of several areas in which enemy troops have been reported massing, presumably for the countrywide Communist offensive expected in the next two months.

About 200 North Vietnamese troops cut into the Marines with heavy machine-gun fire in what appeared to be an ambush. When the North Vietnamese finally pulled back under heavy air and artillery attack 20 Marines were dead and another 40 were wounded.

The battle took place Sunday, but was not reported until today. The Marines swept the battlefield Monday and found only five North Vietnamese bodies.

Possibly others were carried off by the enemy.

In what appeared to be another ambush Monday, North Vietnamese troops hiding in a wooded area opened up with heavy machine guns, small arms and mortars on U.S. air cavalrymen probing enemy base camps deep in the mountains 35 miles northwest of Hue.

The fighting at times was at grenade range. Helicopter gunships swooped in to help drive off the enemy.

Four air cavalrymen were reported killed and 25 wounded.

The dogfight lasted for five minutes as the Crusaders, which can fly at more than 1,000 miles an hour, fired missiles and bursts from their 20mm cannon. The U.S. Command said Lt. Cmdr. Guy Cane of New York City blasted a MIG17, a model of Korean War vintage, from the skies.

It was the first MIG American pilots reported downing in three weeks and the 109th of the war. Forty-eight American planes have been lost to MIGs in aerial combat.

The authentic early American school room displayed by the Pickaway County Historical Society has a touch of realism—an electric fan keeps the students and teacher comfortable while classes are in session.

The sewing projects of the various 4-H clubs was never finer. All participants deserve a word of praise for the near-professional efforts.

The Pickaway County Soil Savers 4-H club had winners galore... 12 blue winners graced the display.

himself the Panthers' captain of military, stood in front of 25 party members dressed in black leather jackets and berets, called police "racist dog pigs," and urged Negroes to arm themselves.

Immediately after the rally broke up on a school playground, a fire started on a sidewalk. Police confiscated several bottles of gasoline hidden in bushes.

Then violence broke out in several nearby areas.

One hundred policemen quickly sealed off the area and used tear gas to put down several rock-throwing incidents. Several minor fires, including one at a Boy Scout headquarters, were quickly put out.

And in Peoria, Ill., eight policemen were sprayed by shotgun pellets early today after rock and brick throwing erupted into gunfire and firebombings in a Negro neighborhood northeast of downtown Peoria.

Five of the officers were treated at St. Francis Hospital and were released. Three were admitted but their condition was termed not serious.

No other injuries were reported in the early morning outbreak.

Four men and three women, all Negroes, were arrested.

Police said the trouble began late Monday night when Negro youths started hurling rocks and bricks at vehicles stopping for a traffic signal at Green and Adams Streets near the Taft Homes housing project.

After the situation deteriorated during the post-midnight hours, all off-duty city police, 18 sheriff's deputies and several state police were summoned to duty in the area.

Calm returned shortly before dawn, but the area was sealed off to all outsiders and an estimated 225 police patrolled the streets.

Scattered incidents of overnight rock throwing and firebombings were reported today by Kalamazoo police.

There were no arrests, no serious injuries and little damage reported in the disturbances on the near North Side of this western Michigan community of 170,000.

Plan for Strong GOP Plank On Vietnam Hits Snag: Ike

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Chances for a dramatic Republican platform proposal to end the Vietnam war dimmed today as former President Dwight D. Eisenhower opposed any "camouflaged surrender."

Eisenhower's special message to the platform committee accompanied the testimony of a nonpartisan committee, of which he is a member, ruling out both pullout and massive escalation of the fighting.

It strengthened the sentiment apparently already held by a majority of the committee for a broadly worded statement that would leave the party's presidential candidate free to develop his position during the campaign. Such a plank fits the mood of supporters of Richard M. Nixon, who are saying their man will be nominated on the first or second ballot.

Backstage Army Meeting Held by Czech, Russians

PRAGUE (AP) — A Czechoslovak general opposed to the country's new democratic reforms today was reported in contact with Soviet Army officers as the leaders of the Soviet and Czechoslovak Communist parties resumed their showdown meeting close to the Soviet border.

Prague Radio reported that the two party delegations had gone back into session at Cierna but gave no details.

The summit meeting between the Soviet Politburo and the Czechoslovak party's Presidium was expected to conclude today after a thorough debate on the liberalization program launched by Prague's new leaders. But so far there has been no word on the likely outcome of the talks.

Meanwhile, the trade union newspaper Prace reported that Gen. Samuel Kodaj, who warned early this month against "counterrevolutionary" tendencies in the country, met at Strečno, in Slovakia, with the "Soviet Army staff which is operating on our territory."

Prace said Kodaj and other Czechoslovak officers met with the chief of the Soviet Army staff, a Gen. Mayorov, and other Soviet officers "to exchange views on the present situation."

"Counterrevolutionary" was the chief charge made against the Czechoslovak party leadership by the Soviet Union, East Germany, Poland, Bulgaria and Hungary at a meeting in Warsaw early this month.

There was no new word today on the talks between the Soviet and Czechoslovak political leaders which began Monday close to the Soviet border.

The Soviet Politburo—supported by Communist allies in Poland, East Germany, Hungary and Bulgaria—came to Cierna demanding that the Czechoslovaks reverse their party's new liberalization program, re-establish strict party censorship of the press, radio and television, end the purge of Stalinist hard-liners, permit Soviet or Communist bloc troops on Czechoslovak soil, ostensibly to guard against West Germany, and follow Moscow's general policy lines.

The Czechoslovaks, led by reform-minded Alexander Dubcek, pledged in advance of the meeting to continue the easing of the restraints imposed on the country by 20 years of Communist party rule. They also are demanding for all nations in the Soviet-dominated Warsaw Pact military alliance, respect for Czechoslovak territorial integrity and sovereignty, and the right to continue reorganization of their economy.

reporter he expects the Eisenhower statement to have considerable weight in the drafting.

Sen. John G. Tower of Texas, a Nixon stalwart serving on the committee, said a majority of the group is "Nixon-disposed."

He added: "It is logical to expect that the platform will reflect that sentiment."

Nixon has not spelled out his proposals for handling the Vietnam problem, but he may have more to say later in the week by way of statements in his behalf to the platform committee.

Rockefeller has proposed a four-stage peace plan featuring use of an international military force as a buffer. One of his adherents on the platform committee, Rep. Silvio Conte of Massachusetts, said he would like to see a platform plank along these lines.

Foreign Aid Appropriation At Rock Bottom, Solons Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has been told there's no fat left to trim from President Johnson's foreign-aid requests, now more than $1 billion under what he asked and the lowest in the program's 21-year history.

Acting Chairman John Sparkman, D-Ala., of the Foreign Relations Committee said the $1.94-billion level set by the committee "represents the absolute minimum necessary if we are to sustain our over-all foreign policy."

Johnson's original request for $2.96 billion was slashed repeatedly in its progress through the House Foreign Affairs Committee, the House and the Senate.

month per year of service for men with 30 years service, meaning they could get $195 a month instead of $150.

An extra paid holiday, for a total of eight, was thrown in, along with pay for widows whose husbands are killed on the job. An extra seven cents would be added to the job classifications spread, meaning that top classifications would get seven cents additional per hour by the time the three-year contract ended.

Provisions on other union demands, such as unemployment, insurance, severance and job training, could not be learned. But these contract improvements could push the total package up another 5 or 10 cents, to possibly 88 cents an hour.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

Brotherly Kindness Pays Dividends

DEAR ABBY: I am 11 years old and my brother is eight. Our mother and father are split up, and Dad is married to another lady now. Mom is going to marry another man in September. Her new husband has a boy who is nine years old. After Mom marries this man his kid is going to live with us and be our "brother" because his own Mom is dead. He don't know how to hold a fork, he walks like a girl and talks like a baby and we don't like him at all. What should we do?

TWO BOYS
DEAR BOYS: You and your brother should be extra nice to this motherless nine-year-old boy. Maybe he is a slow learner, but he has feelings. Be patient with him, and try to teach him. People who are the "hardest" to love, usually need love the most.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are planning to go to his hometown next month to attend his sister's wedding. We would stay with his parents, which is the problem.

His mother is a thrice-committed paranoid, violent outbursts are symptomatic of her condition.

My husband and I can look after ourselves, but should we

Holdup Man Is Slain In Cincy

CINCINNATI (AP) — James Pragar, an off-duty policeman, thwarted a robbery attempt Monday by fatally wounding the holdup man following an exchange of gunfire and a fight.

With his three children looking on, detective Pragar ducked seven shots and was bitten when he struggled with the man before shooting him in the head. The incident took place at the Seventh Ward Loan & Building Co.

Killed was Harold E. Walker, 22, Cincinnati, who police said had been under surveillance as a possible suspect in several previous building and loan holdups.

Pragar was in the office on business when the man entered, jumped a counter and then demanded money from two women employees to put into a brown paper bag he was carrying.

Pragar herded his three youngsters to one side and then shouted to the man that he was under arrest.

The man retaliated by emptying his seven-shot .22 caliber gun at Pragar but failed to hit him. Pragar also missed a shot and then the two men tussled.

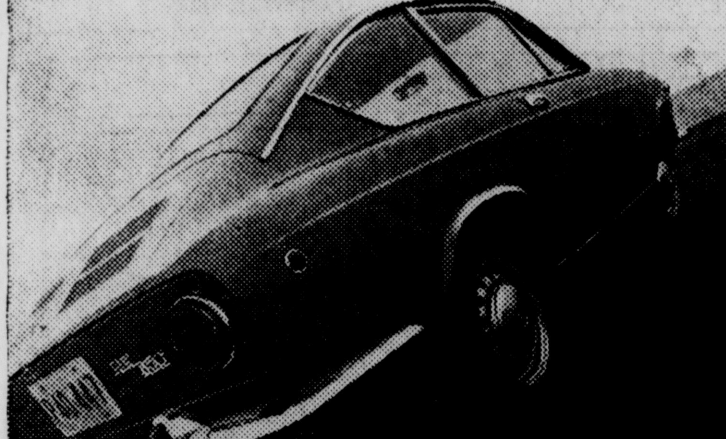

"He pulled loose from me and ran for the door, and when he ran for the door, I shot again," said Pragar. That was the shot that fatally wounded the man.

Pragar was taken to Cincinnati General Hospital and treated for the bite in his back. Doctors also noted that one shot had nearly parted the detectives hair but had not drawn blood.

Use of Irradiated Bacon By Army Is Halted by FDA

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army insists that irradiated canned bacon is safe for human consumption despite the Food and Drug Administration's decision to stop the military services from feeding it to the troops.

Col. Edward L. Johnson of the Army's food-irradiation laboratories at Natick, Mass., said in a telephone interview that animal tests of the bacon were made prior to the Army's petition to feed it to some troops, and the tests showed "no evidence of any adverse effects from the irradiation."

"There seems to be a difference of opinion in interpreting the data from the tests," said Johnson. "We're hoping to resolve this."

Johnson made the comments on published reports, confirmed by an FDA scientist, that:

1. The FDA has turned down a new Army petition to begin serving irradiated ham to soldiers.

2. The FDA has taken a second look at its 1966 approval of

Gen. Palmer Gets New Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Bruce Palmer, a former deputy commander in Vietnam, got his fourth star and was sworn in as the Army's No. 2 man in ceremonies today at the Pentagon.

Palmer was deputy commanding general of the Army in Vietnam until he was picked to return to Washington as part of the Westmoreland team in the Pentagon.

Palmer, 55, replaced Gen. Ralph E. Haines Jr., who has been reassigned to a post in the Pacific.

irradiated bacon, and ordered it out of the mess halls pending further study.

The FDA contends there is evidence that irradiated bacon can cause adverse effects on the reproductive process in rats.

Daniel Banes, an associate FDA commissioner for science, said in an interview the animal tests were sponsored by the Army before it petitioned the Agency for approval, but he said the FDA obtained full details on the tests only a few months ago.

Banes said the Army originally stated "that there were no indications that radiation caused adverse effects" in animals fed irradiated bacon.

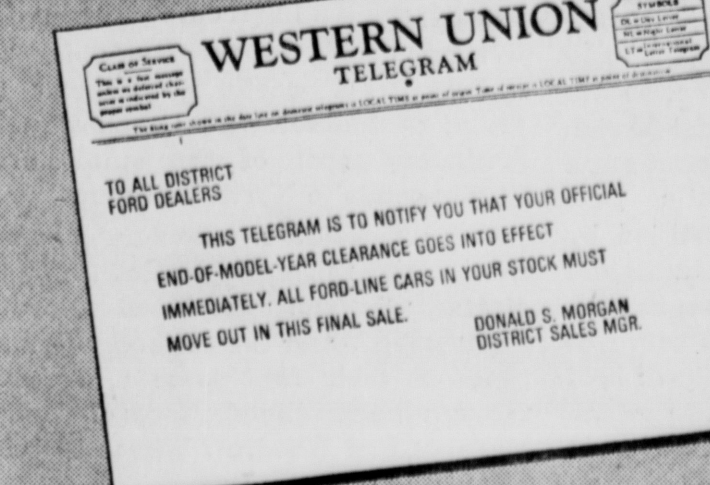

He also said that when the Army — in 1966 and 1967 — began to petition for an okay on irradiated ham, it submitted some raw data on use of irradiated bacon in animals to support its contentions that irradiated ham was safe.

But, Banes said, the animal data on the bacon raised questions in the minds of FDA scientists, and they asked for further details. It was after these additional details were furnished that the FDA concluded the data showed a reproductive process hazard to rats, he said.

Banes said the FDA scientists concluded the data showed a 25 per cent reduction in the number of live-born offspring of rats fed irradiated bacon, and a similar reduction in the number of offspring surviving the weaning period.

"We have had second thoughts on the original bacon petition approval," he said, "and the FDA is taking action to rescind it."

Continuing Pressure

Czechoslovakia is being given every possible signal that Moscow is displeased with the new regime.

Soviet troops have been massed on the Czech border. The implication could not be more clear.

The new Czech government has pledged allegiance to Moscow in matters of common defense and foreign policy, while continuing to permit some domesticity.

This cautious course is justified by the memory of what Soviet tanks did to Hungary's strike for freedom in 1956. Hungary and '56 might also serve to remind Washington of the folly of bold talk without action to match.

There are, nevertheless, ways in which the United States can encourage the liberalization movement in Czechoslovakia without helping to ignite a major conflagration.

For a starter, it could extend to Czechoslovakia the most-favored-nation treatment given to Romania and Poland. This would go against the grain, of course, with Czechoslovakia producing most of the small arms Russia sends to North Vietnam.

Czechoslovakia's economy suffers from the mismanagement of the discredited and displaced Novotny government. And the Czechs, after all, received their first taste of freedom through the combined efforts of Thomas Masaryk and Woodrow Wilson 50 years ago.

Chronically Unemployed

An impression that those comprising a large segment of the jobless are chronically unemployed is confirmed by study after study. Unemployment is the usual thing for an estimated two-thirds of the unemployed.

Much of the unemployment that occurs affects the same workers repeatedly, while most people seem to be wholly immune.

Education has much to do with this. Four out of five of the college educated never have employment trouble, but 50 percent of those with only a grade school education suffer repeated periods of unemployment.

Of the estimated two million who are now habitually unemployed, there must be many capable of acquiring skills that would make them good candidates for steady jobs. But they seem to lack the drive to accomplish this of their own volition.

Crowdmanship

There is much talk about how apathetic the voters are in the pre-convention drives by the candidates for the presidential nominations. But this isn't apparent in the enormous crowds that turn out for the candidates.

There seems to be more subsurface interest in this crucial contest than the politicians realize, with voters turning out to see the candidates in person in quest of some positive clue as to which way to vote.

And of course the candidates and their backers are bending every effort to draw the crowds. Perhaps crowd-manship may join the arsenal of political tricks along with gamesmanship and growthmanship.

The Business World

By JACK LEFFLER (For John Cuniff)

NEW YORK (AP) — Churches are putting their money to work in the slums to expand the opportunities of minority groups in business, employment and housing.

They are spreading their activities from the spiritual, charitable and educational to the field of cash investment.

Protestants, Catholics and Jews have become increasingly active in using their funds for deposit in slum area banks and providing capital directly for businesses and housing projects.

One of the newest developments is the decision of the Episcopal Church Executive Council to deposit a portion of its funds in slum area banks. So far it has deposited $675,000 in 45 such banks and savings and loan associations in 32 cities.

Charles Bound, a member of the Episcopal Council and a vice president of Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, is directing the program.

Sheridan police said someone broke into the cafe through a small window, fried two eggs, ate four sweet rolls and opened a can of grapefruit juice. Nothing else was missing.

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — Laramie police received a $1 bill in the mail to pay for an overtime parking ticket.

Attached was a note saying: "God bless the efficiency of the Laramie police department. I received this ticket while at the city hall paying another."

THERE WAS a traffic accident in Houston, and a man rushed over from the sidewalk to lean over the victim. He was shoved rudely aside, however, by one of those bulky, officious females who obviously had taken a course in first aid. The man stood aside and watched her manhandle the helpless victim for a few moments, then tapped her on the shoulder, and told her, "When you get to the part about calling a doctor, I'm already here."

A Washington secretary borrowed a book from the Library of Congress recently and is puzzled by a letter she's just received concerning same. It read, "We would appreciate the immediate return of the volume you borrowed since it is urgently needed by a United States senator." The name of the book is "Sex and the Single Girl."

"There are two things essential for success in business," Papa Sanford told his son. "They are honesty and sagacity. No matter what befalls, you must always keep your word, once you've given it." "OK, that's honesty," said Sanford, Junior. "What's sagacity?" Papa Sanford snapped, "Never give your word."

Speaking of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Emphysema claimed the lives of three of my friends during the past month. All of them were between the ages of 50 and 55 when they unnecessarily died. I repeat, unnecessarily, because they might have been alive and productive had they taken the advice of their doctors to stop cigarette smoking 10 years ago.

They had this in common, a chronic cough and a fixed idea that it was impossible for them to give up tobacco. When they finally did give it up they were all invalids either at home or in hospitals, breathing through oxygen tubes, or living most of their lives in or near lung respirators.

The first was a doctor, a psychiatrist with a brilliant record as a captain in the United States Navy. The second was a concert pianist of international importance. The third was a television producer whose work will live on while he does not. These three accomplished human beings were unable to dominate the smoking habit and spent eight to 10 years of their valuable lives as chronic invalids, all because of an infantile inability to grasp the importance of the absolute need to completely stop the inhalation of tobacco smoke.

And this insidious and persistent killer, emphysema, will continue unless smokers who are susceptible to this condition, fail to take the emphatic advice of doctors.

You notice I do not speak at this time of the relationship between tobacco and cancer of the lung and larynx. We know that it exists and that the effect on the heart and the blood vessels is severe. This is the known risk that all excessive smokers take. Emphysema is now an epidemic disease that incapacitates people and makes them chronic invalids for years and years.

Emphysema is a lung condition in which the air spaces are excessively enlarged and weakened so that they lose their elasticity. The result is that air becomes trapped in the lung and is responsible for the obstruction and free passage of the inhaled air. It is known as an obstructive lung disease that interferes with the free exchange of oxygen and carbon dioxide, so important to sustain health in all body tissue.

Almost always, chronic bronchitis is present for a long time before the emphysema changes occur in the lung. When once these changes, the weakness of the tiny muscles that line the air sacs and obstruction to breathing, occur, rarely can the tissues again return to normal. Prevention is the key to avoidance of this chronic destructive condition.

There may be many other causes for chronic coughs beside the inhalation of tobacco smoke. Every chronic cough, with or without expectoration of sputum and with shortness of breath, deserves early study and immediate treatment, so that the irreversible changes of emphysema can be avoided.

When the condition is caught early, many new types of treatment can give the patient considerable relief and increase the breathing capacity of the lungs. If the underlying cause is removed, emphysema can be kept in moderate control. The infection associated with this condition can be treated with new antibiotics and many drugs which are effective as neutralizers, to help increase the lung capacity.

Postural exercises and intensive improvement of ventilation of the lung can keep many of these patients in comparative good health. Emphysema is a pathetic and heartbreaking waste of lives.

Break-Through for CORE

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN Black capitalism, supported by the Negro militants of CORE on the Left, by Ripon Society in the middle, and by presidential aspirant Richard Nixon on the moderate Right, is struggling fitfully to gain a foothold. There have been failures, but in at least one important instance the movement has reached the break-through stage. This has happened in Philadelphia where the Reverend Leon Sullivan, pastor of the Zion Baptist Church, has come up with something called Progress Aerospace Enterprises, Inc., or "PAE," which will shortly be manufacturing both classified and non-classified components for the air space industry.

The prime reason for believing that the Reverend Mr. Sullivan's company, which is owned by more than six hundred black investors, is here to stay is offered by the General Electric Company. But GE has such confidence in Pastor Sullivan's ability to deliver the goods that it has awarded him $2,675,000 in contracts. And, trailing along behind GE, the U.S. Department of Labor has offered $522,000 under its National Alliance for Businessmen program for training a hundred hard core workers for technical posts in the PAE Philadelphia factory. The new Negro-owned business will ultimately employ 160 workers.

Like New York City's "black capitalist" enterpriser, Dr. Thomas Matthew, who has started a whole complex of industries around his Interfaith Hospital in the borough of Queens, the Reverend Mr. Sullivan has found it possible to conjure his initial working capital out of the ghetto itself. The Sullivan "Philadelphia story" goes back a long way, to June of 1962. In that month 650 men and women joined something called the "10-36" program which had been devised by Pastor Sullivan to build apartment houses on a self-help basis. The idea was to sell stock to individuals at $10 a month for thirty-six months until there was enough money in the kitty to go ahead with a real estate development. Since 1962 Pastor Sullivan and the young men and women of his congregation have built several housing units. They are now putting the finishing touches on a large shopping center on Philadelphia's main street. Progress Aerospace Enterprises, Inc., is the boldest of the "10-36" investment club's adventures.

The thing that convinced GE that the Rev. Mr. Sullivan was worth backing was his ability to sustain his projects. Out of the original essay in apartment house building there came something in 1964 called the OIC, or Opportunities Industrialization Center, which has spread into seventy cities.

Mark Morton, General Manager of the Missile and Space Division of GE, helped the Rev. Mr. Sullivan with the development of OIC's self-help industries. When Pastor Sullivan came to Morton with the blueprint — or the dream — of an aerospace components manufacturing company to be financed and operated by Negroes (though with some white employees, just to keep the goal of integration firmly in place), Mr. Morton said he'd put the local Philadelphia resources of GE behind the venture. Banking support came from John Bunting, the president of the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Company, and Colonel Clifford Taylor, the Air Force representative at GE in Philadelphia, gave his advice.

Richard Cornuelle, the author of "Reclaiming the American Dream" who works up voluntary slum rehabilitation projects for the National Association of Manufacturers, has said that if every church in America were to make itself responsible for creating three jobs it would wipe out unemployment in America. If every Negro congregation followed the example of that of the Reverend Mr. Sullivan's Zion Baptist Church, investing $10 per month per person for thirty-six months in some new business enterprise, think of the productivity that would result. And if every big corporation in America would imitate GE and underwrite a Negro business by giving it an important contract, it would change the words of the song "We shall overcome" to "We have overcome." "Black capitalism" — and a peaceful form of black power — would be here, and Stokely Carmichael could retire to raise zinnias.

Dear Editor:

Would like to share with Circleville community residents the great pride Unit 134, American Legion Auxiliary felt when they received several first place awards at the State of Ohio American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary Convention held recently in Columbus.

This was possible due to the help of so many in making our important project "Memorial Poppy Day" such a big success that we can in turn carry on the year long programs of rehabilitation at the Veterans Hospital at Chillicothe and the child welfare help to disabled veterans families in the community.

Our "Poppy Publicity Scrapbook" won "First" in the state. It covers the entire year's activities leading up to Poppy Day in May. We feel very honored to have won this prize three straight years. Especially this year, as our book was dedicated to Mrs. B.T. (Mary) Hedges, who passed away a few months ago. She was a charter member of Unit 134 and was very active in all the Unit did. Over the years she held many elective offices in the local Unit and the Seventh District of which we are a part. She had attended all Department Conventions since 1929 and for the past 35 years helped entertain the patients of Chillicothe Veterans Hospital once a month.

Our entry in the decorated "Poppy Window" won "First" in the state and has gone on to represent the state at the National Convention which will be held later this year in New Orleans. George Helwage gave us permission to use one of the front windows at Fitzpatrick Printery for our display. Ned Schreiner made an 8x10 glossy black and white print picture which was required to enter the contest. It brought out in detail what we tried to all in the display. All this help from local people made it possible to win this honor.

Tammy Fetherolf, fourth grader at Atwater School, whose Poppy Poster won first place in Class one locally, was awarded "Third" place in the state contest. There are 603 Units in the State of Ohio and when it was announced she had placed third, we were so proud. We know her family and teacher must feel the same, too.

Our "Narrative Report" covering the year's activities of the Unit in Child Welfare for disabled Veteran families won "First" in the state and has gone on to represent the state at the National Convention. Mrs. Roseann Stinson has served the Unit for three years as the chairman of this important job. She has seen to the clothing needs, food, toys, gifts, parties, favors, visits where there was illness and numerous other things on a year around basis.

When these honors were given and the name "Unit 134, Circleville" rang out, our delegates were proud to be a part of a community which has not forgotten our honored war dead and the thousands shut inside the Veterans Hospitals. We are very grateful to all of you.

Continuing Pressure

Czechoslovakia is being given every possible signal that Moscow is displeased with the new regime.

Soviet troops have been massed on the Czech border. The implication could not be more clear.

The new Czech government has pledged allegiance to Moscow in matters of common defense and foreign policy, while continuing to permit some domesticity.

This cautious course is justified by the memory of what Soviet tanks did to Hungary's strike for freedom in 1956. Hungary and '56 might also serve to remind Washington of the folly of bold talk without action to match.

There are, nevertheless, ways in which the United States can encourage the liberalization movement in Czechoslovakia without helping to ignite a major conflagration.

For a starter, it could extend to Czechoslovakia the most-favored-nation treatment given to Romania and Poland. This would go against the grain, of course, with Czechoslovakia producing most of the small arms Russia sends to North Vietnam.

Czechoslovakia's economy suffers from the mismanagement of the discredited and displaced Novotny government. And the Czechs, after all, received their first taste of freedom through the combined efforts of Thomas Masaryk and Woodrow Wilson 50 years ago.

Chronically Unemployed

An impression that those comprising a large segment of the jobless are chronically unemployed is confirmed by study after study. Unemployment is the usual thing for an estimated two-thirds of the unemployed.

Much of the unemployment that occurs affects the same workers repeatedly, while most people seem to be wholly immune.

Education has much to do with this. Four out of five of the college educated never have employment trouble, but 50 percent of those with only a grade school education suffer repeated periods of unemployment.

Of the estimated two million who are now habitually unemployed, there must be many capable of acquiring skills that would make them good candidates for steady jobs. But they seem to lack the drive to accomplish this of their own volition.

Crowdmanship

There is much talk about how apathetic the voters are in the pre-convention drives by the candidates for the presidential nominations. But this isn't apparent in the enormous crowds that turn out for the candidates.

There seems to be more subsurface interest in this crucial contest than the politicians realize, with voters turning out to see the candidates in person in quest of some positive clue as to which way to vote.

And of course the candidates and their backers are bending every effort to draw the crowds. Perhaps crowd-manship may join the arsenal of political tricks along with gamesmanship and growthmanship.

The Business World

By JACK LEFFLER (For John Cuniff)

NEW YORK (AP) — Churches are putting their money to work in the slums to expand the opportunities of minority groups in business, employment and housing.

They are spreading their activities from the spiritual, charitable and educational to the field of cash investment.

Protestants, Catholics and Jews have become increasingly active in using their funds for deposit in slum area banks and providing capital directly for businesses and housing projects.

One of the newest developments is the decision of the Episcopal Church Executive Council to deposit a portion of its funds in slum area banks. So far it has deposited $675,000 in 45 such banks and savings and loan associations in 32 cities.

Charles Bound, a member of the Episcopal Council and a vice president of Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, is directing the program.

"Our deposit of $15,000 in each of these banks doesn't sound important but it is a relatively large deposit for a small financial institution.

"Our intention is to help build an economic base for minority groups so they can carry their own ball and become independent."

"We are hoping that our dioceses all over the country and businesses will join in depositing their funds. One large corporation has deposited $2 million."

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. last May approved lending $9 million of its funds at low interest rates to high-risk business and housing enterprises in low- and middle-income areas.

The National Council of Churches says other denominations, including the Disciples of Christ and the Unitarians, are engaged in similar activities.

The council has set up an investment committee with a fund of $200,000 to invest in slum businesses. It has helped finance a savings and loan association, consumer cooperatives and a small industrial plant.

The Roman Catholic archdiocese of New York has a sizable amount of money on deposit in the Negro-owned Freedom National Bank in Harlem.

A group of New York apparel manufacturers, working through the American Jewish Committee, has set up a $20-million credit pool to help Negro merchants stock new clothing stores in nonwhite areas of New York City. Their goal is 500 new stores.

The various faiths are working together in the program. For example, in Harrisburg, Pa., the American Jewish Committee and Catholic and Protestant groups have joined in sponsoring 175 units of low-cost housing.

In another approach to slum problems, organizations from the three major faiths pledged this month to spend their millions of dollars in building and purchasing funds only with companies and unions that have nondiscriminatory employment practices.

Among the groups joining in the nationwide "Project Equality" were the Catholic archdiocese of New York, the American Jewish Committee and the National Council of Churches.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actors, like producers, writers and directors in network television, worry about critical notices and—even more—about ratings.

But while a short-lived series may be an embarrassing footnote to a career, there is considerable evidence that even an unmitigated disaster can help rather than hurt the victims trapped in the wreckage.

A magnificent example of this is the impending debut of a young actor named Wayne Maunder in a new CBS series, "Lancer." A year ago, Maunder, a complete unknown, was about to emerge as a star, playing the title role in ABC's "Legend of Custer."

The Custer show, as it turned out, was the earliest and most spectacular derailment of the season. It outraged Indian organizations and historians, was lambasted by critics and tuned out by the audience.

But Maunder walked away unscathed and will return to living rooms in another Western series with costar status.

Similarly, Tony Franciosa

had one unhappy season as a playboy in a limp comedy series a few years back but healed his scars quickly enough to be coming back as one of three costars of NBC's 90-minute "Name of the Game."

Phyllis Diller tried a situation comedy that didn't work. She returns this season as star of an NBC variety show.

There is the TV trail blazed by the Smothers Brothers; their one-season comedy-fantasy series didn't work, but their CBS variety hour has been a sensation.

Jack Lord's series about a rodeo rider didn't last long, but he will be the star of CBS' "Hawaii Five-O," a police story. Will Hutchins had a bad time with "Hey, Landlord," a couple of years back, but returns as Dagwood of CBS' "Blondie." His wife will be played by Patricia Harty whose "Occasional Wife" series was dropped after one season.

Stony silence surrounds the sudden action of ABC late last week, notifying Quinn Martin that it was ending its relationship with the producer, except for his successful "FBI" series. Their contract had four more years to run, and Martin had just finished the first of three planned two-hour feature films for ABC.

Martin, who also produced "The Fugitive," would say merely that ABC "has sent us a telegram instructing us to cease all production except 'The FBI'." I can't say anything except there was no prior notice and I have turned the whole matter over to our attorneys.

An ABC spokesman in New York said there was no comment.

The television networks for two seasons jostled and shoved each other to get their new season's product on the air first. This season NBC has scheduled most of its season premieres during the week of Sept. 15. There will be a big jam, however, the following week when both ABC and CBS start their new shows. One happy result of the timing—almost two weeks later than last season—is that rerun time next spring will be delayed a bit.

Leather Tunics, Headbands Mark Saint Laurent Show

PARIS (AP) — The Far West, with cowboys and Indians and overtones of Hiawatha seen in fringed leather tunics and headbands, set a new mood at Yves Saint-Laurent for the coming winter.

He fixes the pace with pants, trousers and bell bottoms, topped by tunics for street wear and fireside. For evening he dresses the sleeves in solid glittering jet black sequins.

In his collection shown for fashion writers today, tunics are fingertip, knuckle-length and sometimes wrist-length. His silhouette is straight and slender throughout.

The second source Yves resorts to is Revolution. There are outfits in black leather, topping red tunics with near head kerchiefs "for the barricades." Calf length topcoats borrowed from the Russian Revolution in somber shades and black, parade ominously by.

Saint-Laurent feels the Parisienne will want to wear tailored black or anthracite gray with black or beige in the city. Most of his tunics are black for daytime and mainly shown with bell bottoms and wide stovepipe pants. A few Bermudas and culotte skirts and variety. Some tunics are treated like double-breasted tailored jackets. They're always pencil slim, belted, pocketed, long sleeved and have either tailored or a round collarless neckline. Tunic coats are worn over shirttail tabbed shirts.

The wild West comes to town in brown-fringed leather tunics. The collection opened with a brown cowboy outfit. The girl wore a wide brimmed brown felt hat lavishly trimmed with fringe. She had topboots and only needed a horse to carry out the theme.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actors, like producers, writers and directors in network television, worry about critical notices and—even more—about ratings.

But while a short-lived series may be an embarrassing footnote to a career, there is considerable evidence that even an unmitigated disaster can help rather than hurt the victims trapped in the wreckage.

A magnificent example of this is the impending debut of a young actor named Wayne Maunder in a new CBS series, "Lancer." A year ago, Maunder, a complete unknown, was about to emerge as a star, playing the title role in ABC's "Legend of Custer."

The Custer show, as it turned out, was the earliest and most spectacular derailment of the season. It outraged Indian organizations and historians, was lambasted by critics and tuned out by the audience.

But Maunder walked away unscathed and will return to living rooms in another Western series with costar status.

Similarly, Tony Franciosa

had one unhappy season as a playboy in a limp comedy series a few years back but healed his scars quickly enough to be coming back as one of three costars of NBC's 90-minute "Name of the Game."

Phyllis Diller tried a situation comedy that didn't work. She returns this season as star of an NBC variety show.

There is the TV trail blazed by the Smothers Brothers; their one-season comedy-fantasy series didn't work, but their CBS variety hour has been a sensation.

Jack Lord's series about a rodeo rider didn't last long, but he will be the star of CBS' "Hawaii Five-O," a police story. Will Hutchins had a bad time with "Hey, Landlord" a couple of years back, but returns as Dagwood of CBS' "Blondie." His wife will be played by Patricia Harty whose "Occasional Wife" series was dropped after one season.

Stony silence surrounds the sudden action of ABC late last week, notifying Quinn Martin that it was ending its relationship with the producer, except for his successful "FBI" series. Their contract had four more years to run, and Martin had just finished the first of three planned two-hour feature films for ABC.

Martin, who also produced "The Fugitive," would say merely that ABC "has sent us a telegram instructing us to cease all production except 'The FBI'." I can't say anything except there was no prior notice and I have turned the whole matter over to our attorneys.

An ABC spokesman in New York said there was no comment.

The television networks for two seasons jostled and shoved each other to get their new season's product on the air first. This season NBC has scheduled most of its season premieres during the week of Sept. 15. There will be a big jam, however, the following week when both ABC and CBS start their new shows. One happy result of the timing—almost two weeks later than last season—is that rerun time next spring will be delayed a bit.

GOP Platform Committee Seeks Unbiased Planks

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Republicans began their 1968 platform writing today with counsel from their Senate leader against trying to shape the planks in behalf of any particular presidential hopeful.

"We don't know who is going to be the nominee," Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said. "I'm keeping myself free from that controversy—if it is a controversy."

Dirksen, who heads the committee drafting the party document in advance of next week's nomination convention, added that he himself is "trying to be neutral" in the platform-drafting and he hopes others will refrain from pushing for their favorites through platform wording.

In 1964 supporters of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and other self-styled moderates battled unsuccessfully in platform hearings to block the nomination of Barry Goldwater. Rockefeller is now challenging Richard M. Nixon for the nomination.

Dirksen said if "somebody" — he mentioned no names — tries to mold the platform to suit his favorite and it turns out that another man is nominated, the document would not fit. "I am trying for a platform any candidate can run on," he said.

The GOP leader spoke to newsmen last night after an organizing session of the platform committee. He reported "there is no indication that hat mater came up at this meeting."

The 1964 platform committee chairman, Rep. Melvin R. Laird, said at the opening hearing today that the Republicans need a platform demonstrating "young blood and exciting ideas."

The Wisconsin Republican, who headed the platform committee in the campaign the Republicans lost four years ago, said in prepared testimony, "if we learned nothing else from 1964, we should at least have learned that when you are the out party you go on the offensive, not the defensive."

Laird, chairman of the House Republican Conference, said voters must be convinced the Republican party is not simply one of obstructionism.

Social Problems Come in Fractions

BALTIMORE (AP) — According to a report written for Baltimore's Department of Social Services, modern troubles can come in fractions.

A group of welfare recipients who participated in a year-long federally financed rent subsidy program were found to have an average of 2.70 major psychosocial problems, or those which required "community intervention."

The report, written by Dr. Harris Chaiklin of the University of Maryland School of Social Work, said social workers identified .87 new problems per family and eliminated .58 problems per family.

STEER ENTRY — Fair Queen Shirley Brown brings her Hereford steer to a pose. She plans to enter the animal in competition in the Pickaway County Fair. Her royal companion, Bob Collins, raises swine and will show them in the fair.

American Foreign Trade Balance in Hole 3rd Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. foreign trade balance shows Americans are on an international spending spree and the Commerce Department says the outlook is "far from reassuring."

The department reported Monday the value of imports topped exports in June, the third month this year in which the nation has bought more goods from foreigners than it has sold to them.

The June deficit was given as $87.2 million on a seasonally adjusted basis. For government officials it was a jolting followup to May's $32.2 million deficit.

The January-to-June exports, adjusted for seasonal variation, totaled $16.4 billion and imports $16.1 billion. The difference, $318 million, goes on the "good" side of the ledger but leaves virtually no hope that the year as a whole will produce another $4.1 billion surplus to match 1967.

What pains government officials most is that the Johnson administration looked on that 1967 surplus as a springboard to an even better 1968. The administration was shooting for a $500 million improvement over last year but is now faced with an uphill fight just to match the 1967 performance.

Every summer a 100-member cast re-enacts Pulitzer Prize-winner Paul Green's epic story of the first English settlement in America, "The Lost Colony," at Manteo, N.C. This year the season runs from June 21 to Aug. 25.

Coca-Cola Wins Majors Title on Camp's Homer

Coca-Cola came up with four runs in the top of the sixth inning on Wade Camp's bases-full homer Monday to top The Herald Hawks, 4-3, and gain the Little League Major championship.

The Jets now stand 11-3 in the league with one game to go. The Hawks are 9-5 and third place Elks, who suffered a 4-3 loss to Bingman Monday, are 8-6.

The Hawks marked three runs in the bottom of the first. Jeff See accounted for two with a single.

Then the game settled down and went scoreless for four innings. In the sixth Coke's Jerry Johnson singled. John Ankrom smacked a grounder, but the force at second was late and both runners were safe.

JAMES Francis drew a walk from Hawks pitcher Phil Roll and loaded the bases. Then Wade Camp stepped up to the plate and lined one out past the outfielders.

The Hawks charged back in

NEW RECORD—Hoyt Wilhelm (above) set a new major league pitching record by surpassing Cy Young's 54-year-old mark of appearing in 906 games. Wilhelm, 45, has been pitching 17 seasons. It took Young 26 seasons.

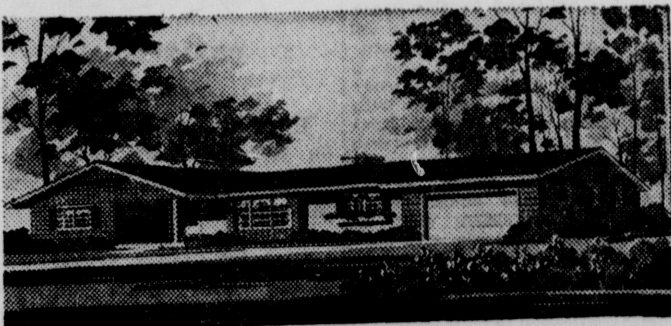

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS "The spoiler" might be an apt nickname for Jesse Gonder. For that's precisely what he had in mind as he cracked out a ground single that did little for Richmond's cause but put an end to prospects Monday night for the first International League perfect game in 16 years.

"I wanted to break it up," Gonder said after Rochester's Roger Nelson and Tom Fisher combined for a 6-0, one-hit victory over the Braves. "Getting no-hit is no fun."

A single to left field by Rookie Richie Hebner with bases loaded in the last of the ninth gave Columbus its winning margin in its 4-3 decision over Buffalo. Jacksonville put together a single, a double and triples by Bob Heise and Will Huckle in the second inning for all the runs it needed to edge Syracuse 3-2.

Jim Rooker gave up only six hits and struck out 14 in leading the front-running Toledo Mud Hens to an 11-3 victory over Louisville.

Tigers Lose But Still Gain in AL Race

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tracking the Tiger is fast becoming a monumental misadventure for the Baltimore and Cleveland-based safaris.

The New York Yankees caught Detroit napping Monday night and roughed up the front-running Tigers 7-2 behind unsung right-handers Joe Verbanic and Lindy McDaniel.

But instead of losing ground to the pursuing Baltimore Orioles and Cleveland Indians, the Tigers stumbled forward another half step toward their first pennant in 23 years.

The Boston Red Sox took the edge off Detroit's setback by sweeping a day-night doubleheader from Baltimore 3-2, in 10 innings, and 8-3 while last place Washington upended Cleveland

4-2. As a result, the Orioles and Indians each trail the Tigers by seven games and the Red Sox are 8½ lengths back.

Elsewhere California edged Minnesota 2-1, ending a five-game losing string, and the Chicago White Sox struck for five runs in the 13th inning and a 7-2 victory over Oakland.

Verbanic, a Yankee reliever making one of his infrequent starts, pitched out of several early jams at Detroit before giving way to McDaniel in the sixth and squared his pitching mark at 4-4. Two of his victories have been at the Tigers' expense.

McDaniel, picked up in a recent inter-league deal with San Francisco, allowed only one hit — Norm Cash's solo homer in the seventh — over the final 3 2/3 innings.

Joe Pepitone's two-run single in the fifth broke a 1-1 tie and the Yanks pulled away on two-run homers by Jake Gibbs and Roy White. Loser Joe Spuma was tagged for five runs and nine hits before departing in the sixth.

Successful 10th inning doubles by Jose Tartabull and Mike Andrews snapped a 2-2 deadlock in the afternoon game at Boston, giving Ray Culp a hard-earned pitching verdict over Baltimore reliever Moe Drabowsky. Culp, 7-4, struck out 12 in going the distance.

Andrews and Joe Joy homered in the nightcap and Carl Yastrzemski slammed three doubles as the Red Sox breezed behind rejuvenated Juan Pizarro. The veteran southpaw, 3-2, survived bases-empty homers by Boog Powell, Paul Blair and Dave Johnson.

"Every one that goes into the loss column hurts," admitted Orioles' pilot Earl Weaver, whose club dropped two of three to Detroit before the double dip at Boston's Fenway Park. "This day-night doubleheader after our series with Detroit was tough to take."

"But there's still a lot of time."

Ron Hansen clubbed a tie-breaking homer in the sixth inning and Frank Howard unloaded his 29th homer in the seventh as the Senators surprised Cleveland behind right-hander Jim Hannan.

Sammy Ellis stopped Minnesota on four hits and scored the deciding run while finishing one up on the Twins' Dean Chance in a beanball exchange. Ellis hit Chance with a pitch in the top of the fifth and Chance nicked Don Mincher in the bottom of the inning. Chance then plunked Ellis in the sixth and the Angels' pitcher moved around to score the tie-breaking run on Roger Repoz's single.

Triples by Tom McCraw and Tommy Davis, a double by Tim Cullen and pitcher Wilbur Wood's two-run single keyed the Whitt Sox' 13th inning awakening after Luis Aparicio's fourth hit in the game opened the gates. Aparicio drove in Chicago's first two runs with a single and triple.

Hargan Problems Lose for Tribe

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steve Hargan says he's "riding high" — and that ain't good.

The young right-hander, rated by Manager Alvin Dark as one of the keys to the fortunes of the 1968 Cleveland Indians, has been plagued by control problems. He had problems again Monday night as the Indians fell 4-2 before the Washington Senators.

Unable to keep the ball low,

Hargan walked five batters and gave up four hits in five innings.

"This is the craziest things," said Hargan. "I feel good physically. The whole problem is control. 'I'm riding high.'"

The Senators got to Hargan for two runs in the fifth. Hargan started by walking the Washington pitcher Jimmy Hannan. Gary Holman singled, and Mike Epstein walked to fill the bases. Frank Howard drove in one run on an attempted force play with one out.

Vern Fuller threw high to second, and the bases remained loaded. Ken McMullen's sacrifice fly drove in the second run.

The Indians tied it in the bottom of the fifth with two runs on singles by Dave Nelson, Jimmie Hall and Russ Snyder. Hannan also was charged with two balks and walked two men before Joe Azcue grounded out with the bases loaded to end the rally.

With the score tied, Dark sent reliever Vicente Romo in to pitch.

"Romo hadn't pitched since last Wednesday," said Dark. "He was the best man to hold them. I figured if he did we could score a run in the last three innings."

But Ron Hansen hit a homer off Romo in the sixth, and Howard clouted another in the seventh. The Indians never got back in the game.

The only consolation was that Detroit and Baltimore both lost — the Orioles dropping two games — and the Indians are in a virtual tie for second with Baltimore.

Block's Shoes, Mac's Post Mosquito Wins

Block's Shoes stormed past PPG, 22-9, and Mac's lowered the boom on Circle Auto Parts, 25-1, in Mosquito League action Monday.

Block's came up with an 11-run third inning and coasted the rest of the way. Brad Allison and Todd Mancini worked for the winners, walking nine, fanning nine and allowing seven hits.

Phillips, Cline and Karr all had a hand in the mound duties for PPG. They gave up 25 bases on balls and 12 hits, striking out 10.

Allison, Chuck Cave and Tim Ritchie doubled for the winners. R. Scherer tripled for PPG.

MAC'S stands to share the Mosquito Loop title if Barnhill gets knocked off tonight against FOPA. The Goodyearmen are 8-1 at the end of the season and Barnhill is 8-0.

Mac's produced their 25 runs on 22 hits and 14 walks by five CAP pitchers. Winning hurler Bill Mogan walked nine, struck out 10 and was touched for four hits.

Randy Hoop tagged a grand slam homer in the fourth for the winners. Kyle Thomas, Doug Dallman and Bob Fuller also homered.

Mac's triples were recorded by Randy Hoop and Bill Mogan. Fuller, Thomas, Mogan and Hoop doubled.

Washington Cops Tri-County Title

Steve Marshall pitched his fourth shutout of the year as Washington upended Stoutsville, 4-0, to gain the Tri-County Little League Major championship Monday.

Washington finished with a 8-2 mark to Stoutsville's 7-3. Marshall allowed just three hits, including a double by Toby Davis.

Greg Justus had a pair of hits for the winners and Mark Justus tripled.

The Circleville Herald, Tues. July 30, 1968
Circleville, Ohio

KARATE STUDENT — Joey Heatherton, star of stage and screen, received an honorary Green Belt from Dick Greenlee, head instructor of Combat Karate Institute, in Circleville and Columbus. The Green Belt is one of the early steps in becoming a full fledged karate expert.

Coca-Cola Wins Majors Title on Camp's Homer

Coca-Cola came up with four runs in the top of the sixth inning on Wade Camp's bases-full homer Monday to top The Herald Hawks, 4-3, and gain the Little League Major championship.

The Hawks now stand 11-3 in the league with one game to go. The Hawks are 9-5 and third place Elks, who suffered a 4-3 loss to Bingman Monday, are 8-6.

The Hawks marked three runs in the bottom of the first. Jeff See accounted for two with a single.

Then the game settled down and went scoreless for four innings. In the sixth Coke's Jerry Johnson singled. John Ankrom smacked a grounder, but the force at second was late and both runners were safe.

JAMES Francis drew a walk from Hawks pitcher Phil Roll and loaded the bases. Then Wade Camp stepped up to the plate and lined one out past the outfielders.

The Hawks charged back in the bottom of the sixth and had men on second and third when the final out was made.

Perry Hoskins worked all the way for the new champs, walking one, fanning eight and allowing six hits. Roll went the distance for the Hawks, issuing three bases on balls, fanning eight and allowing five hits.

Camp's homer was the only extra baser of the tilt for either side.

Bingman needed a three-run sixth inning to slip past Elks, 4-3. Tim Brown and Rock Davis split mound chores for the winners, fanning 10 and scattering six hits.

Kris Kline worked for the Elks, striking out seven and allowing seven hits.

Rock Davis homered for the winners and Don Speakman doubled. Randy Thomas tripled for the Elks.

Perfect Game Bid Failure

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
"The spoiler" might be an apt nickname for Jesse Gonder. For that's precisely what he had in mind as he cracked out a ground single that did little for Richmond's cause but put an end to prospects Monday night for the first International League perfect game in 16 years.

"I wanted to break it up," Gonder said after Rochester's Roger Nelson and Tom Fisher combined for a 6-0, one-hit victory over the Braves. "Getting no-hit is no fun."

A single to left field by Rookie Richie Hebner with bases loaded in the last of the ninth gave Columbus its winning margin in its 4-3 decision over Buffalo. Jacksonville put together a single, a double and triples by Bob Heise and Will Huckle in the second inning for all the runs it needed to edge Syracuse 3-2.

Jim Rooker gave up only six hits and struck out 14 in leading the front-running Toledo Mud Hens to an 11-3 victory over Louisville.

Tigers Lose But Still Gain in AL Race

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Tracking the Tiger is fast becoming a monumental misadventure for the Baltimore and Cleveland-based safaris.

The New York Yankees caught Detroit napping Monday night and roughed up the front-running Tigers 7-2 behind unsung right-handers Joe Verbanic and Lindy McDaniel.

But instead of losing ground to the pursuing Baltimore Orioles and Cleveland Indians, the Tigers stumbled forward another half step toward their first pennant in 23 years.

The Boston Red Sox took the edge off Detroit's setback by sweeping a day-night doubleheader from Baltimore 3-2, in 10 innings, and 8-3 while last place Washington upended Cleveland

4-2. As a result, the Orioles and Indians each trail the Tigers by seven games and the Red Sox are 8½ lengths back.

Elsewhere California edged Minnesota 2-1, ending a five-game losing string, and the Chicago White Sox struck for five runs in the 13th inning and a 7-2 victory over Oakland.

Verbanic, a Yankee reliever making one of his infrequent starts, pitched out of several early jams at Detroit before giving way to McDaniel in the sixth and squared his pitching mark at 4-4. Two of his victories have been at the Tigers' expense.

McDaniel, picked up in a recent inter-league deal with San Francisco, allowed only one hit — Norm Cash's solo homer in the seventh — over the final 3-2-3 innings.

Joe Pepitone's two-run single in the fifth broke a 1-1 tie and the Yanks pulled away on two-run homers by Jake Gibbs and Roy White. Loser Joe Sparma was tagged for five runs and nine hits before departing in the sixth.

Successive 10th inning doubles by Jose Tartabull and Mike Andrews snapped a 2-2 deadlock in the afternoon game at Boston, giving Ray Culp a hard-earned pitching verdict over Baltimore reliever Moe Drabowsky. Culp, 7-4, struck out 12 in going the distance.

Andrews and Joe Joy homered in the nightcap and Carl Yastrzemski slammed three doubles as the Red Sox breezed behind rejuvenated Juan Pizarro. The veteran southpaw, 3-2, survived bases-empty homers by Boog Powell, Paul Blair and Dave Johnson.

"Every one that goes into the loss column hurts," admitted Orioles' pilot Earl Weaver, whose club dropped two of three to Detroit before the double dip at Boston's Fenway Park. "This day-night doubleheader after our series with Detroit was tough to take."

"But there's still a lot of time." Ron Hansen clubbed a tie-breaking homer in the sixth inning and Frank Howard unloaded his 29th homer in the seventh as the Senators surprised Cleveland behind right-hander Jim Hannan.

Sammy Ellis stopped Minnesota on four hits and scored the deciding run while finishing one up on the Twins' Dean Chance in a beanball exchange. Ellis hit Chance with a pitch in the top of the fifth and Chance nicked Don Mincher in the bottom of the inning. Chance then plunked Ellis in the sixth and the Angels' pitcher moved around to score the tie-breaking run on Roger Repoz's single.

Tripled by Tom McCraw and Tommy Davis, a double by Tim Cullen and pitcher Wilbur Wood's two-run single keyed the White Sox' 13th inning awakening after Luis Aparicio's fourth hit in the game opened the gates. Aparicio drove in Chicago's first two runs with a single and triple.

Hargan Problems Lose for Tribe

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steve Hargan says he's "riding high" — and that ain't good.

The young right-hander, rated by Manager Alvin Dark as one of the keys to the fortunes of the 1968 Cleveland Indians, has been plagued by control problems. He had problems again Monday night as the Indians fell 4-2 before the Washington Senators.

Unable to keep the ball low,

Hargan walked five batters and gave up four hits in five innings.

"This is the craziest thing," said Hargan. "I feel good physically. The whole problem is control. 'I'm riding high.'"

The Senators got to Hargan for two runs in the fifth. Hargan started by walking the Washington pitcher Jimmy Hannan. Gary Holman singled, and Mike Epstein walked to fill the bases. Frank Howard drove in one run on an attempted force play with one out.

Vern Fuller threw high to second, and the bases remained loaded. Ken McMullen's sacrifice fly drove in the second run.

The Indians tied it in the bottom of the fifth with two runs on singles by Dave Nelson, Jimmie Hall and Russ Snyder. Hannan also was charged with two balks and walked two men before Joe Azcue grounded out with the bases loaded to end the rally.

With the score tied, Dark sent reliever Vicente Romo in to pitch.

"Romo hadn't pitched since last Wednesday," said Dark. "He was the best man to hold them. I figured if he did we could score a run in the last three innings."

But Ron Hansen hit a homer off Romo in the sixth, and Howard clouted another in the seventh. The Indians never got back in the game.

The only consolation was that Detroit and Baltimore both lost — the Orioles dropping two games — and the Indians are in a virtual tie for second with Baltimore.

Washington Cops Tri-County Title

Steve Marshall pitched his fourth shutout of the year as Washington upended Stoutsville, 4-0, to gain the Tri-County Little League Major championship Monday.

Washington finished with a 8-2 mark to Stoutsville's 7-3. Marshall allowed just three hits, including a double by Toby Davis.

Greg Justus had a pair of hits for the winners and Mark Justus tripled.

Block's Shoes, Mac's Post Mosquito Wins

Block's Shoes stormed past PPG, 22-9, and Mac's lowered the boom on Circle Auto Parts, 25-1, in Mosquito League action Monday.

Block's came up with an 11-run third inning and coasted the rest of the way. Brad Allison and Todd Mancini worked for the winners, walking nine, fanning nine and allowing seven hits.

Phillips, Cline and Karr all had a hand in the mound duties for PPG. They gave up 25 bases on balls and 12 hits, striking out 10.

Allison, Chuck Cave and Tim Ritchie doubled for the winners. R. Scherer tripled for PPG.

MAC'S stands to share the Mosquito Loop title if Barnhill gets knocked off tonight against FOPA. The Goodyear men are 8-1 at the end of the season and Barnhill is 8-0.

Mac's produced their 25 runs on 22 hits and 14 walks by five CAP pitchers. Winning hurler Bill Mogan walked nine, struck out 10 and was touched for four hits.

Randy Hoop tagged a grand slam homer in the fourth for the winners. Kyle Thomas, Doug Dallman and Bob Fuller also homered.

Mac's triples were recorded by Randy Hoop and Bill Mogan. Fuller, Thomas, Mogan and Hoop doubled.

NEW RECORD—Hoyt Wilhelm (above) set a new major league pitching record by surpassing Cy Young's 54-year-old mark of appearing in 906 games. Wilhelm, 45, has been pitching 17 seasons. It took Young 26 seasons.

Culver Hurls No-Hitter for Cincinnati

B. ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Now George Culver knows how to act.

"I really got nervous in the seventh," the Cincinnati pitcher said Monday night.

"I'd never even come close to pitching a no-hitter before in my life. I didn't know how to act."

Two innings later, the former relief specialist had a 6-1, no-hit victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and he was acting completely normal under the circumstances.

"Actually after the game I was crying," he said. "Winning is important, but doing it by pitching a no-hitter, that's the greatest."

Culver's gem gave Cincinnati a sweep of the two-night doubleheader—the Reds winning the first game 7-6.

St. Louis beat the New York Mets 5-1, Pittsburgh edged Atlanta 3-2, Houston blanked Los Angeles 2-0 and San Francisco topped the Chicago Cubs 4-1 in other National League action.

Culver, who worked out of the Cleveland bullpen last year and was obtained by the Reds in a winter trade, ran his record to 9-9 with his third complete game of the season.

The Phillies sent seven men on bases—five on walks, one on an error and one on a catcher's interference—against the young right-hander who struck out three.

Philadelphia's run was unearned and came in the second. Richie Allen reached first when third baseman Tony Perez boot- ed his grounder, and continued to second when shortstop Woody Woodward picked up the loose ball and threw wildly. Allen advanced to third on a ground out and scored on Cookie Rojas' sacrifice fly.

Cincinnati scored three runs in each of the third and fourth innings. Pete Rose started both rallies with singles.

The Reds took the opener when Rose tripled in the ninth and scored on Vada Pinson's sacrifice fly. Rose then saved the game by throwing out Allen, who tried to score from second base on John Callison's two-out single.

Philadelphia had tied the game at 6-6 in the eighth on a solo homer by Allen and Don Lock's two-run shot.

St. Louis' Ray Washburn boosted his record to 10-3 with his seventh straight victory, a seven-hit, eight strikeout, no-walk performance against the Mets. He hasn't lost since May 21.

Lon Brock, who scored once and drove in two runs, broke a 1-1 tie for the Cardinals in the eighth was a sacrifice fly.

Pittsburgh earned its victory over Atlanta on a homer by Bill Mazeroski, Donn Clendenon's sacrifice fly and a single by Roberto Clemente.

Mike Cuellar drove in the first run with a squeeze bunt and pitched a four-hitter in Houston's victory over Los Angeles. First baseman Ken Boyer of Los Angeles was taken to a hospital for X rays after being involved in a collision at first with Houston's Bob Watson.

Gaylord Perry won only his third game in two months for San Francisco, stopping the Cubs on two hits. The Giants clinched it for Perry, 9-9, with a three-run sixth.

Van Brocklin Tunes College All-Stars for Friday Clash

CHICAGO (AP)—Coach Norm Van Brocklin isn't called the Dutchman for nothing. He calls the shots and makes his own decisions.

As a result, when Van Brocklin takes his College All-Stars up against the Green Bay Packers in Soldier Field Friday night, not a single member of the 50-man squad will be suffering from anything as much as a hangnail.

Throughout the previous years, coaches have attacked the task of putting a team together in three weeks with work, work and more work. Contact and scrimmages used to be the byword.

Gary Ballman and Tom Woodshick of the Philadelphia Eagles walked out in a salary dispute. At least 49 other pro and prospective pro football players walked out looking for jobs. And another walked out in uniform—military uniform, that is.

Philadelphia Coach Joe Kuharich said Ballman's salary demand "was such that we could not meet it." He was noncommittal on Woodshick.

"We don't pressure anyone to sign a contract," Kuharich said Monday. "They have a right to do what they want. I have to draw the line somewhere, and I have drawn the line."

Ballman, an end, and Woodshick, a fullback, both were regulars last year.

"I may never come back," said Woodshick.

"I want to play for the Eagles," said Ballman, "but if we don't come to any agreement, I'm sure there'll be other ball clubs in contact with me. If we don't sign, there's only one way out—trading me."

While they stashed away their uniforms, Green Bay Packer reserve quarterback Don Horn broke out his U.S. Army uniform. His reserve unit was called up for six months active duty at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

Horn, a second-year man, who completed 10 of 23 passes in Thursday's intrasquad game, was expected to play behind Bart Starr this season, a Packer spokesman said.

The other 49 were cuts, as the teams in both the National and American Football Leagues sought to get down to a mandatory maximum of 60 by Wednesday night.

The New York Giants cut four, including veteran defensive linemen Rosey Davis and Riley Gunnels.

Vern Burke, a veteran, eight-year tight end, who did not play much last season because of an injury, was one of six cut by the New Orleans Saints.

The Washington Redskins cut two-season linebacker Steve Jackson and six rookies, while the Atlanta Falcons dropped three. Cincinnati and Philadelphia each dropped six.

And the Kansas City Chiefs trimmed 17—including John Henry Haslam, of Blackpool, England, one of the two soccer-style kickers recruited from England. Bobby Howfields, of Herts, England, was retained.

SETS RECORD—Vera Nikolic breaks the tape to win the 800 meters in the British Women's AAA Championships in London. Her time is two minutes 00.5 seconds—a new record for fem athletes.

Culver Hurls No-Hitter for Cincinnati

BED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Now George Culver knows how to act.
"I really got nervous in the seventh," the Cincinnati pitcher said Monday night.
"I'd never even come close to pitching a no-hitter before in my life. I didn't know how to act."
Two innings later, the former relief specialist had a 6-1, no-hit victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and he was acting completely normal under the circumstances.
"Actually, about the game I was crying," he said. "Winning is important, but doing it by pitching a no-hitter, that's the greatest."
Culver's gem gave Cincinnati a sweep of the two-night doubleheader—the Reds winning the first game 7-6.

St. Louis beat the New York Mets 5-1, Pittsburgh edged Atlanta 3-2, Houston blanked Los Angeles 2-0 and San Francisco topped the Chicago Cubs 4-1 in other National League action.
Culver, who worked out of the Cleveland bullpen last year and was obtained by the Reds in a winter trade, ran his record to 9-9 with his third complete game of the season.
The Phillies put seven men on bases—five on walks, one on an error and one on a catcher's interference—against the young right-hander who struck out three.
Philadelphia's run was unearned and came in the second. Richie Allen reached first when third baseman Tony Perez booted his grounder, and continued to second when shortstop Woody Woodward picked up the loose ball and threw wildly. Allen advanced to third on a ground out and scored on Cookie Rojas' sacrifice fly.

Cincinnati scored three runs in each of the third and fourth innings. Pete Rose started both rallies with singles.
The Reds took the opener when Rose tripled in the ninth and scored on Vada Pinson's sacrifice fly. Rose then saved the game by throwing out Allen, who tried to score from second base on John Callison's two-out single.

Van Brocklin Tunes College All-Stars for Friday Clash

CHICAGO (AP) — Coach Norm Van Brocklin isn't called the Dutchman for nothing. He calls the shots and makes his own decisions.

Van Brocklin ruled out the scrimmage, explaining he was preparing his team to meet the Packers and nothing else was important.
In the past, the All-Stars have held their final full-scale scrimmage on the Monday before the game. On Monday, the Dutchman put them through a limited contact session and announced "that concludes the rough work. The rest of time will be spent in review."

The Dutchman then really capped it all by calling off the usual light workout which always was held in Soldier Field two nights before the game to give the players a feel of things.
Van Brocklin's reasoning: "It is of no benefit to the players."
Van Brocklin, who starred for the Los Angeles Rams and Philadelphia Eagles before coaching the Minnesota Vikings, recently announced he will call every play in the game from the bench.

Brown Looks Forward to Chiefs Game

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—After five years away from coaching, Paul Brown admits he is getting excited about swinging into action again.
Brown, coach-general manager of the Cincinnati Bengals, said Monday that recent scrimmages and especially a game-type workout Sunday have really stirred his interest. He affirmed that he is looking forward to the Bengals' debut in an American Football League exhibition game with Kansas City in Cincinnati Saturday night as much as his players.
"That's the dessert. You can't rehearse all week and not be wanting this," Brown, former coach of the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League, said.
Brown said he plans to start against the Chiefs the same players that have been holding down No. 1 positions in scrimmages.
The Bengals trimmed their squad Monday by six players to near the maximum 4-player limit required by August 19.
Released were Dain Birkley, a flanker from Denison; running back Hobbie Williams, recently acquired from San Diego; slot end Don Williams; Halfback Claude Watts from Bluefield State; and guard Fate Echols of Northwestern.

Wallace Bid for Ohio Ballot Spot Headed for U.S. Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A suit filed in U. S. District Court here by supporters of former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace to get the name of the third-party candidate or the names of his electors on the Ohio ballot is to be heard by a three-judge federal panel.

Glen A. William of Cuyahoga Falls, a member of the Ohio Wallace for President Committee, filed the suit Monday.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown has said Ohio law prohibits him from accepting petitions at this late date and he will not do so without a court order.

A Federal court spokesman said an effort will be made to hear the case, possibly this week, but noted that the defendants — Gov. James A. Rhodes, Brown and Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe — have 10 days to answer the petition.

Scheduled to hear the suit are Federal Judges Joseph P. Kinneary of Columbus, and Lester Cecil and Carl Weinman, both of Dayton.

The court action seeks an order halting boards of election from certifying ballots which do not have room for write-ins or the name of Wallace.

In the petition it was admitted that Wallace supporters have not obtained the 433,100 signatures required by a third party under Ohio law. The law also required that such petitions be filed by Feb. 7, 1968.

But the petition said the Wallace backers do have petitions containing signatures of a "reasonable number of qualified voters." They claim more than 300,000 signatures.

The suit contends that the Ohio law regarding third party candidacies is unconstitutional in that it denies the right of suffrage and the right to vote for Wallace.

National 2-Day Police Walkout Is Proposed

Lack of Support In Race Violence Behind Move

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — A national two-day police walkout has been proposed by police leaders embittered by what they consider lack of support in dealing with racial violence.

"When police are being shot like fish in a barrel, it's time we do something," said John Herrington of Philadelphia, national president of the 137,000-member Fraternal Order of Police.

A conference will be held in September to consider the walkout, Herrington said today. No date or place has been set.

Delegates will include representatives of the order and such city police groups as New York's Patrolmen's Benevolent Association and the Detroit Police Association, Herrington said.

The walkout was first proposed, he said, at a meeting of police leaders from several large cities after they attended the funeral for three Cleveland officers slain by snipers.

"They think people ought to find out what it would be like if there were no police departments," said Herrington.

Herrington said the date for the "seminar" on the proposed walkout will be set at the meeting of the Fraternal Order of Police national boards in St. Louis Aug. 18-20.

Cities represented at the Cleveland meeting included New York, Boston, Detroit, Philadelphia, Birmingham, Ala., and Gary, Ind., he said.

Officials Probe Gull-Jet Crash

CLEVELAND (AP) — Authorities will examine a 1.5 million dollar jet plane that hit a flock of sea gulls at Burke Lakefront Airport Sunday and crashed into Lake Erie.

The plane was pulled from the lake Monday and taken to the airport fire station for examination by government, airline and insurance investigators.

The three crew members aboard the plane were rescued shortly after it hit the water. The aircraft is owned by executive Jet Aviation of Columbus.

$500,000 Check Finalizes Divorce

CLAYTON, Mo. (AP) — It took 10 minutes and a $500,000 check Monday for Eugene Zeller Frerichs to be granted a divorce.

St. Louis County Circuit Court Judge George W. Cloyd granted the divorce in the St. Louis suburb of Clayton. He said after the 10-minute hearing it was the largest lump sum settlement he knew of.

Frerichs gave his wife title to their home and agreed to pay $600 a month for support of two of the couple's five children.

Woman-to-Woman Heart Transplant Made in Texas

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A 49-year-old grandmother is the world's newest heart transplant patient, and she was reported in satisfactory condition today at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital.

Beth White Brunk, a Houston housewife, received the heart of a Corsicana, Tex., woman, Monday night in the first woman-to-woman heart transplant.

Reds Detain Gov. McKeithan

BERLIN (AP) — Gov. John J. McKeithan of Louisiana was detained by border guards for 25 minutes Monday when he visited East Berlin.

"I guess they just wanted to annoy me," McKeithan said on his return. He was accompanied by his wife, Louisiana State Treasurer Mary Evelyn Parker and two Louisiana State policemen.

The border guards recognized McKeithan from a front-page picture in a newspaper his wife was carrying. He was not questioned.

Presumably, the guards were following orders to clear with their superiors when anyone out of the ordinary appears at the closely controlled Checkpoint Charlie crossover.

The donor was Betty O'Neal, 40, who entered the hospital Monday after suffering a brain hemorrhage.

Surgeons led by Dr. Denton A. Cooley performed the operation in about two hours, a spokesman said. Cooley has supervised eight human heart transplants here.

Mrs. Brunk, wife of a commercial pilot, was admitted to St. Luke's July 22, a day before surgeons performed their seventh heart transfer in Houston.

The recipient had a blood clot in her lungs that would have killed her in 24 hours, said a daughter, Gladys Smith of Bryan, Tex.

Mrs. Brunk has four children, four stepchildren and nine grandchildren. She first talked with Dr. Cooley last Friday, Mrs. Smith said.

"She was very enthusiastic about heart transplants," the daughter said. "She kept up with them in the paper and talked about them all the time."

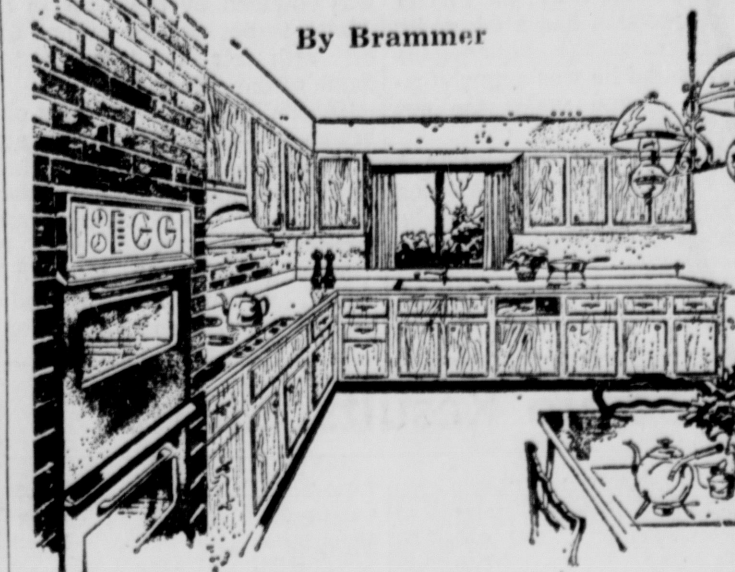

The donor's physician, Dr. Robert D. Bone of Corsicana, said Mrs. O'Neal had a brain tumor. An autopsy was planned to determine the type of growth.

Mrs. O'Neal was in a coma 24 hours before a three-man team of doctors declared her dead about 8 p.m., the spokesman said.

The operation began minutes later and Mrs. Brunk was listed as "doing well" shortly after it was completed.

National 2-Day Police Walkout Is Proposed

Lack of Support In Race Violence Behind Move

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — A national two-day police walkout has been proposed by police leaders embittered by what they consider lack of support in dealing with racial violence.

"When police are being shot like fish in a barrel, it's time we do something," said John Herrington of Philadelphia, national president of the 137,000-member Fraternal Order of Police.

A conference will be held in September to consider the walkout, Herrington said today. No date or place has been set.

Delegates will include representatives of the order and such city police groups as New York's Patrolmen's Benevolent Association and the Detroit Police Association, Herrington said.

The walkout was first proposed, he said, at a meeting of police leaders from several large cities after they attended the funeral for three Cleveland officers slain by snipers.
